703-465-5115

WallBounce is the premier provider of "discerning learning" experiences – with behind-the-scenes moments, private chef tables, adventures and event recommendations in cities across the globe. Through relationships with various organizations, WallBounce provides you with access to experiences, events and one-of-a-kind moments to create an indelible memory.

Many experiences listed on the WallBounce Website are open to everyone. Others are less-publicized opportunities available only to WallBounce members. Additionally, WallBounce provides limited access to special events, and will also work to create special one-of-a-kind moments upon request to members and corporate partners.

WallBounce offerings include:

- Invitations – to attend speaking engagements, lectures or special educational/social events
- Experiences – opportunities that encompass unique and experiential learning opportunities across the globe
- WallBounce Event Notification – with your FREE registration, you will receive regular updates on events happening in your city and the world
- Gift Certificates – an opportunity to give the gift of an experience to someone who is curious about the world.
