

Subject: Squidoo Lens of the Day: Wallbounce: Experience A Wish

Date: Fri, 12 May 2006 00:16:44 +0000

Hi Squidoo member,

Want to go shark diving in Honduras? (I think I'll pass).

Blimp riding in Boston? (Now that I can do).

Well, whatever your wish, no matter how far-fetched, Wallbounce can help. Their goal has been "connecting people to their wish list--from the basic engagement proposal to the member who asked us to arrange a chocolate tasting in a chocolatier for someone's 50th birthday." It's a company focused on organizing custom experiences, pre-packaged adventures, contests and online auctions for charities.

And the Wallbounce lens gives you just enough info to whet your appetite.

I just wonder if they can arrange for me to meet Koko the signing gorilla.

What's your wish? www.squidoo.com/wallbounce
