GALA "A CELEBRATION OF WOMEN IN MUSIC"

Debbie Gifford, Cleveland vocalist, member of IWH has been chosen to perform in the Gala.

The concert will be part of the Music World Forum taking place in Hollywood, CA from Oct. 1-5, 2005 and will take place at the Ricardo Montalban Theatre at Hollywood & Vine. Debbie and Linda will represent the United States as well as the genre of American Jazz. Their concert repertoire will include Debbie’s composition “So Many Songs ‘Bout Love” and Linda’s composition “The Journey.” “I Love Being Here With You” by Peggy Lee and “What a Difference a Day Made” by Maria Grever. The GALA concert will also include music from a variety of cultures and countries around the world. The concert will be chaired by Patricia Atkins Chih, President of Foundation Adkins Chih, Donee in Music, the same foundation that Giuffre and Presgrove performed for in Rome. Also joining them on the bandstand will be the Cleveland drummer, Rocky Eton from Debbie’s, jazz quartet “Delito Giford & The Beat in Jazz”. Accompanying them on accoustic bass will be LA bassist Sherry Luchette. The Music World forum conference will be a knowledge-building platform on the future of music in a fast changing society.
