DOING BUSINESS WITH THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA AND FEDERAL GOVERNMENT CONTRACTING OPPORTUNITIES

One of the many benefits that the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce proudly provides for entities in this region, is conducting workshops and seminars that assist and inform companies in every aspect of their business from market- ing, planning, and financing to legal issues, accounting, selling, and much more.

One of these workshops that the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce sponsors is a FREE State and Federal Contracting Certification. It will be held at Fernwood Resort on Saturday, August 26 from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. for busi- ness owners of Monroe County.

This unique and informative seminar is designed to help small businesses learn how to become certified vendors who have approval to sell their products and services to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the federal government.

This workshop will answer questions such as:

Does the state buy what you sell?

- How does the state buy goods and services?
- How can a business negotiate sole source contacts?
- Price evaluation preference in full/open competition
- How a business becomes a State vendor
- How can a business find the state bidding opportunities?
- Is competition limited to certified firms only?
- Government contracting opportunities
- How a business becomes a State certified vendor

Did you know that the federal government purchased more than $22 Billion worth of products and services from certi- fied vendors in the past year? Do you also know that your business has a great potential to become a vendor?

For more information and registration, please contact Peter Alasty at (570) 421-4433.

We urge you to attend this seminar and find out if your business can benefit from the state and federal certification.

From the Chairman of the Board

Business Card Exchanges are a great way to network. The idea of effective networking is to exchange business cards with as many people as possible. For every business card you give out, you should have one in return. The key to making the most out of the Business Card Exchanges is to follow up. A few days after the card exchange, contact the individuals that you met to let them know that it was nice meeting them, and remind them again of your business.

When you join the Chamber, your first Business Card Exchange is complimentary as a Thank You for investing in our organization. During the card exchange all new members will be announced and you will have a chance to introduce yourself. This gives you another opportunity to promote your business.

Hosting a Business Card Exchange gives our members a chance to showcase their business. If you are interested in hosting a card exchange please contact Patricia Metzgar at the Chamber at (570) 421-4433 or email her at pmetzgar@poconochamber.net.

Attend our next Business Card Exchange! You will be glad that you did.

If proper computer ergonomics are not practiced, the effect can be Cumulative Trauma Disorders or CTD. There are many factors that contribute to CTD, including personal factors, reduction of excessive force, reduction of excessive motions, keeping everything in easy reach, minimizing pressure points, and working at proper heights. For more information please visit <http://office-ergo.com>

The special program was Burnley Employment and Rehabilitation Services (BEARS). Rich Peterson, CEO of Burnley, reported that they have been providing training and employment opportunities for people with disabilities since 1964. The services that they currently offer include a vocational training program and food service program, as well as an employment program. They provide 500 meals a day for the Area Agency on Aging and Meals on Wheels. Burnley has off-site work locations and collaborates with many organizations such as United Way, Northampton Community College, RSVP, and East Stroudsburg University, to name a few. At Burnley Workshop they help people "work together to help people help themselves."

27th Annual Quality of Life Golf Tournament participants triumph over the rain

The Quality of Life Committee of the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce held their 27th Annual Golf Tournament on a wet and sunny June 28th. The location, Skytop Lodge, provided us with a moist and challenging golf course, an exquisite meal, and exceptionally friendly and professional service. This year's tournament was again dedicated to the memory of Coral Washburn.

The Tournament was sold out, with an impressive one hundred-twenty (120) golfers signed up. The field was filled months prior to the tournament, which generated quite a large waiting list. We apologize to those individuals who could not fit in this year and only hope that they sign up very early next year.

The day kicked off around noon when everyone arrived to register and receive their "goodie" bag. Following registration, attendees proceeded to enjoy a delicious barbeque lunch. At 1:00 p.m. the Pro at Skytop, Brian Boyle, gave the golfers the tournament instructions and sent them to their starting holes. Upon completion of the tournament everyone took some time to relax with fresh fruit, cheese trays, beer, wine, and assorted beverages, followed by a delightful dinner at 7:00 p.m.

Mr. John Casella, Co-Chairman of the Tournament opened the program. He was followed by Tournament Co-Chairman Mr. Chuck Niclaus who delivered a benediction prior to our meal and spoke in tribute to Coral Washburn.

Mr. Bill Cramer emceed an evening of fun, prizes, and laughs. The Chamber took a few moments to offer our sincere thanks to the many sponsors and numerous businesses for their gift donations.

The tournament was set up as a two-person scramble and consisted of three flights.

The winners were:

- Championship Flight (66) Bill Cramer
Craig Scott
- 1st Flight (77) Gerald Langon
Ren Major
- 2nd Flight (88) Mark Lasewicz
Ren Major
- Closest to the Pin Winner Joe Small
- Longest Drive Linda Worthington

John Casella & Chuck Niclaus, Co-Chairmen of this tournament would like to congratulate the winners and thank all of the sponsors, gift donors, and all of the volunteers, especially Nancy Henry and Mary El Kasas for their assistance in making this day so successful.

The proceeds from this tournament will benefit quality of life programs within the Pocono Region as well as the Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber would like to recognize the following Major Sponsors for their generous contributions to this special event:

Platinum Sponsor	Matzel Development Corporation
Gold Sponsors	CDE - Careers: Computers, Massage, Medical & CDL
Silver Sponsors	Patterson - Kelley C & M Home Builders
Copper Sponsors	PPL UPS Martz Trailways Met-Ed

More than 100 people were in attendance to enjoy the delicious food, fabulous networking opportunities, and learn more about Fraser Advanced Information Systems.

From the President

The Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce will present its third annual Human Resources Conference on Tuesday, September 19, 2006 at Shawnee Inn & Golf Resort. This event will run from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. offering three workshops on various topics such as current insurance trends, law of harassment in the workplace, wage and hour compliance, and best hiring practices, just to mention a few.

The Chamber's HR Committee's goal is to offer this conference as an informational resource tool for business owners, managers, supervisors, and human resource professionals. We will achieve this by offering a menu of 12 seminar topics to select from, a panel discussion of "Best Practices" in our region, professional networking opportunities, exhibitors with valuable HR services, and the latest information in the HR field from leading experts.

The cost to attend this Human Resource Conference is $75.00 for Chamber members, $85.00 for non-Chamber members, $65.00 for non-profits, and $10.00 off for additional participants. This includes lunch during the panel discussion titled "Best Practices: Developing Key Employees." Registration deadline is September 12, 2006.

If you would like additional information about the conference or if you would like to be a sponsor, contact Miriam Conway at the Chamber's office. This Human Resource Conference is another prime benefit for the members of the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce.

Pocono Medical Center (PMC) recently announced that they have begun admitting patients to their new, state-of-the-art intensive care and cardiovascular critical care unit. The unit is located on the second floor of the recently completed new wing. "This is another positive step in the evolution of Pocono Medical Center," says Richard J. Henley, President and CEO of PMC. "With each day we are moving forward and adding the technology and staff that will help us meet the medical needs of our community now and in the future." The new intensive care and cardiovascular critical care units feature state-of-the-art monitoring equipment and beds, sleeper chairs so loved ones can spend more time with the patient, and on-demand video education and staff interaction to ensure patients are fully informed. "This unit is design with the patient in mind," says Robyn Stein, RN, Executive Director of the ESSA Heart and Vascular Institute.

Pocono Medical Center (PMC) has been selected by a leading software company that provides patient care solutions to emergency centers nationwide as a top User of the Year for its products. The announcement came during Picis Usergroup Symposium conference in Palm Beach, Florida, where Pocono Medical Center placed second out of 180 total hospitals that were considered. PMC was recognized for their use of the Ibox PulseCheck system, a Web browser-based software package that combines triage, patient tracking, physician and nursing documentation, risk management, charge management, integrated voice recognition, and prescription writing. "We are thrilled to have placed second," says Carol Taylor, RN, Ibox Facilitator for PMC. "We are a smaller hospital than many of the other hospitals that were considered. This further shows our commitment to patient care, and that patients can get world class care at Pocono Medical Center."

Pocono Mountains Economic Development Corporation's chairman, Paul Canevari, is pleased to announce that Dennis M. Noonan has joined the staff as the new Economic Development Specialist. Mr. Noonan has extensive experience in the real estate and finance industries and has been providing private consulting services to companies for the past six years. "Dennis' background in site selection and feasibility analysis will be extremely valuable to our organization," stated Mr. Canevari. Mr. Noonan will be responsible for prospect handling, business expansion and retention, business financing programs, and construction/engineering management. He will also be the designated Keystone Opportunity Zone Coordinator for Monroe County. Chuck Leonard, Executive Director of Pocono Mountains Economic Development Corporation, added, "Dennis will be working directly with prospects looking to locate in our community as well as with our existing industries on expansion projects. We welcome him to our staff." Pocono Mountains Economic Development Corporation is a non-profit economic development corporation dedicated to creating jobs for Monroe County residents, expanding the county's tax base, and attracting new investment.

Chamber Board Member Honored with International Recognition

Daisy Gallagher, who has played an important role in the Chamber for many years, was recently honored with the renowned "Artemis Award" by the Euro-American Women's Council (EAWC) under auspice of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Hellenic Republic. Only several women and men leaders from around the globe were chosen and recognized for their distinguished achievements in the fields of business, politics, academia, and the arts.

Daisy Gallagher, CEO, Gallagher & Gallagher, Inc. of D.C., PA, and NYC was chosen for her firm's continued growth and high level of dedication to her clients' success.

Among her firm's recent work was the award of a prime contract over several top nationwide agencies to coordinate a five-day, large-scale Office of Personnel Management (OPM) Workforce Conference in Baltimore, MD. The Conference was aimed at providing training to the government's top human capital leaders. The collaboration of OPM support staff and subcontractors-like well-known Lockheed Martin-with the Gallagher team proved to be successful for all. "This was an excellent teaming arrangement," stated Ms. Gallagher. "The Gallagher team worked side by side with OPM, Lockheed Martin and the other subcontractors, and vice versa, showcasing the opportunity for a positive scenario in contracting teaming arrangements, a win-win for all in this case."

Gallagher & Gallagher, Inc. serves both public and private sector clientele. They have been providing award-winning services since 1990.
