Silver Arrow Gallery, in Tannersville, is proud to present a new local artist whose specialty is making one of a kind jewelry for everyday and wedding wear.

Local artists Karen Rose and Keyaira Lynn Daniel, a mother and daughter team, have always been into the arts. Karen has introduced, taught and encouraged Keyaira to find the peace and beauty that creating will bring. Living in the Poconos she looks to share the joy that comes when a girl finds that simply perfect piece of jewelry.

Keyaira's jewelry is made from gemstones, beads, glass and lace. She has one of a kind pieces made from wedding lace. Custom made pieces are available including pieces made from the lace in your wedding attire. For further information contact the gallery at 570-619-0461 or www.silver-arrow-gallery.com.

Riverside Rehabilitation is please to welcome Melissa Chappell, MS, OTR/L as a full time Occupational Therapist treating patients at the Stroudsburg, East Stroudsburg and Brodheadsville locations.

A Cum Laude graduate of James Madison University, Harrisonburg, VA, Chappell received a BS in Health Science and MS in Occupational Therapy. She has experience treating patients in both outpatient and inpatient settings. Melissa evaluates and treats patients suffering from repetitive strain injuries, nerve entrapment disorders, arthritis, carpal tunnel and tendon injuries. Additionally, she is trained in customized splint fabrication.

Ann Marie Day, MSPT

Additionally, Ann Marie Day, MSPT, Clinic Director of Riverside's Tannersville location, attended the APTA's First Annual Orthopedic Section Meeting May 2-4, 2013 in Orlando Florida. This two day conference was dedicated to advanced orthopedic practice for physical therapists in treatments focusing on the lower extremity and lumbosacral spine.

For additional information on Physical, Occupational or Speech Therapy, contact Riverside Rehabilitation at 800-514-3878 or visit www.riversiderehab.com. With convenient locations in Brodheadsville, East Stroudsburg, Stroudsburg, Tannersville, Tobyhanna, Moscow, Taylor, Plains, Wilkes-Barre, Mountaintop, Dallas, Tunkhannock and Berwick, patients receive individualized care by licensed professionals close to home, work or school in five counties throughout Northeast PA and the Poconos. Extended evening hours are available. Most insurance plans accepted.

Through the generous support from Ray Price Motors to Pocono Medical Center's Capital Campaign for the Dale and Frances Hughes Cancer Center, members of the Price Family gathered for the official ribbon cutting of PMC's Valet Parking sponsored by Ray Price Motors. The new valet parking podiums will be used at the Butler Pavilion, Lobby D Entrance of Pocono Medical Center and in the future at the Dale and Frances Hughes Cancer Center. The valet parking service is provided as a courtesy to patients and visitors of PMC. "Ray Price Motors recognizes the importance of quality customer service and is pleased to support PMC and contribute to the convenience of the valet service which helps patients and visitors on a daily basis," stated Ray Price.

Pocono Medical Center (PMC) and American Candle are partnering together to raise awareness on breast cancer and raise funds for the Dale and Frances Hughes Cancer Center.

Every year, Patricia Howanitz, the owner of American Candle, holds a fundraising event for a local organization. This year she asked the Spirit of Women program at PMC to partner with American Candle to support women's health in the community and raise money for the Dale and Frances Hughes Cancer Center at PMC.

Spirit of Women, the free women's wellness program at PMC, is part of a national network of leading hospitals dedicated to improving women's lives with innovative health and community programs. PMC's Spirit of Women program touches the lives of thousands of women in our community through the presentation of educational events; a business rewards partner program, health promotion materials, free health screenings, and grassroots efforts to improve the health and well-being of women in the Poconos.

This year, the fundraising event called Shop for a Cure, will be held on Friday, May 10th from 6PM-8PM at the American Candle Store on Route 611 in Bartonsville. American Candle, a Spirit of Women Business Rewards Partner, will have storewide sales and host a tricky tray with great gifts for Mother's Day. A portion of the proceeds from the event will be donated to the Dale and Frances Hughes Cancer Center.

PMC's Breast Surgeon, Dr. Patricia Riley, MD, will give a brief talk and hold a question and answer session about breast health. Franklin Hill Vineyards, another Spirit of Women Business Rewards Partner, will be providing a complementary wine spritzer including the drink recipe—a perfect way to celebrate mother's day!

For more information about the Spirit of Women program or this event, please visit www.pmchealthsystem.org/spirit or email spirit@pmchealthsystem.org.

Northampton Community College Offers WordPress Class. Need your own website? Don't have much money? Don't know what to do? This course will help you overcome those obstacles and take advantage of FREE services. You will learn subject matter from Hosting, Domain Registration, using WordPress templates, through getting your website indexed by Google. Learn all you need to know to start your own website with "WordPress: Starting a Website on a Shoestring Budget" at Northampton Community College.

This class will help participants overcome obstacles and take advantage of free services, as well as teaching the ins and outs of hosting, domain registration, using WordPress templates, and getting your website indexed by Google.

The course is offered on Mondays, June 3-July 1, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the Fowler Family Southside Center, 511 E. Third Street, Bethlehem. Fee is $159.

Jason Laubach

Northampton Community College's Jason Laubach Wins Young Professional in Procurement Award. Jason Laubach, assistant controller for Northampton Community College (NCC), has won the Young Professional in Procurement Award from the National Association of Educational Procurement (NAEP), the nationwide organization focused exclusively on procurement in higher education. The award was presented at a ceremony held at the Association's 92nd Annual Meeting in Orlando, Florida in April. Laubach, a Whitehall, Pa., resident, has worked at NCC for six years.

Pocono Raceway announced today Fuzzy's Ultra Premium Vodka becomes the "Official Vodka of Pocono Raceway." Fuzzy's Ultra Premium Vodka, an existing official partner of the IZOD IndyCar Series, will be served at several location for fans, ages 21 and older, to enjoy at "The Tricky Triangle" this summer.

"We are excited about the partnership with our new friends at Fuzzy's," said Brandon Igdalsky, Pocono Raceway President and CEO. "I have shared their vodka with friends and family, all of whom, responsibly, enjoyed the crisp and exceptional taste of Fuzzy's Ultra Premium Vodka."

"Additionally, with Fuzzy's sponsorship of the Triple Crown Award, it makes the return of the INDYCAR race at Pocono even more meaningful for race fans both past and present."

The news of this partnership comes four months after Fuzzy's Ultra Premium Vodka announced they would sponsor the newly-named Fuzzy's Triple Crown. If one IZOD IndyCar Series driver wins the Indianapolis 500 at Indianapolis Motor Speedway, the Pocono INDYCAR 400 at Pocono Raceway and the MAVTV 500 at Auto Club Speedway, Fuzzy's will give them a one-million dollar bonus and a one-of-a-kind trophy. If one driver wins two of the three events mentioned, he will earn a bonus of $250,000.

"The Triple Crown is like winning the Masters, the US Open and the PGA Championship in the same year. The return to Pocono is going to be outstanding," stated Fuzzy Zoeller, professional golfer and founder of Fuzzy's Ultra Premium Vodka. "There's a lot of history at Pocono and there's going to be some amazing racing. We're looking forward to partnering with Pocono Raceway and teeing it up in Pennsylvania for one hell of a race."

The original Triple Crown existed previously from 1971 – 1980 with tracks Indianapolis, Pocono and Ontario (Calif.) and from 1981-1989 with tracks Indianapolis, Pocono and Michigan. Only one driver in open-wheel history won the three races included in the original Triple Crown, in a single season. Legendary driver Al Unser, Sr., accomplished this feat in 1978.

Fuzzy's Ultra Premium Vodka is the Official Vodka of INDYCAR. Additionally, Fuzzy's Ultra Premium Vodka sponsors the No. 20 Ed Carpenter Racing Chevrolet, driven by two-time IZOD IndyCar Series winner, Ed Carpenter.

The IZOD IndyCar Series returns, after a 24-year absence, to Pocono Raceway for the Pocono INDYCAR 400 on Sunday, July 7. Tickets for this historic race start at $25 and all children's Grandstands tickets (ages 12 and under) are half price. For tickets, please visit www.poconoraceway.com or call 1-800-RACEWAY (1-800-722-3929).

"Sustaining a fund can be so challenging but oh so much fun!" says the fund originator, Carole' Ann F. Bowyer. In celebration of June being National Cancer Survivors Month, Bowyer and volunteers are hosting the Pink Ribbon Raffle awareness event at the Lounge in Bartonsville. Starting May 1 through June 28, 2013 raffle tickets can be purchased at various locations such as Beauty Works, East Stroudsburg, Frailey Insurance and Financial Services, Stroudsburg, and Strunk-Albert Engineering, Rt. 209, Marshalls Creek. Tickets can also be purchase by visiting the fund's website, www.hopeforstrength.com. Checks can be made payable to Pocono Health Foundation.

Top prizes are an iPad Mini, a week's stay in St. Augustine, Florida, a Kindle Fire, and a breast cancer ribbon accessory. There will be other raffle prizes, entertainment plus a signature martini, "The Hope Explosion", specifically made for the event. The fun starts at 5:00 p.m. and is open to the public.

All money raised going to the Hope for Strength Breast Cancer fund. The purpose of the fund is to minimize the financial and emotional impact of breast cancer diagnoses and treatment. The Hope for Strength Breast Cancer fund will provide up to $500 to both male and female patients of the Dales and Frances Hughes Cancer Center for basic living expenses. The fund was established in 2011 after Bowyer's daughter was diagnosed with breast cancer. Although her daughter lives in Washington, DC, she decided to create Hope for Strength in the Pocono Mountains to help the patients in the area where she grew up and received an education.

Contact Carole' Ann F. Bowyer at cabowyer@ptd.net or 570 977-0872 for more information about the Hope for Strength Breast Cancer fund and how you can get involved.

Pocono Health System has welcomed a dermatologist to its family of healthcare providers. Clemens Esche, MD completed his residency at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland.

Clemens Esche, MD

"The arrival of Dr. Esche brings to our community a leader in general dermatology and skin cancer diagnosis and treatment," said Kathleen E. Kuck, President and CEO of Pocono Health System/Pocono Medical Center. "We now offer the advantages of the latest advances in treatment to continue to provide world-class care to assist our patients and their families during treatment and recovery."

Skin cancer is the most common form of cancer in the United States and according to the CDC, one American dies of melanoma almost every hour. Preventative measures are essential and they include the following recommendations from the CDC:

- Do Not Burn
- Avoid Sun Tanning and Tanning Beds
- Use Sunscreen
- Cover Up
- Seek Shade
- Watch for the UV Index
- Have yearly skin examinations performed

Dr. Esche received his Doctor of Medicine at the University of Cologne School of Medicine in Germany and completed his residency in Dermatology at the Humboldt-University in Berlin, Germany, and Heinrich-Heine University in Dusseldorf, Germany. He has served in numerous professorships at the University of Pittsburgh Cancer Institute, Mayo Clinic, and the Johns Hopkins Medical Institutions. He also previously served as a dermatologist at clinics in Kentucky and at Appalachian Regional Healthcare, which is a not-for-profit health system serving 350,000 residents across Eastern Kentucky and Southern West Virginia.

He has also been recognized for his dermatology and melanoma research and published in various original research reports, case reports, reviews, abstracts, and oral presentations. The PMC Physician Associates: Dermatology office is located at 228 Independence Road, East Stroudsburg, PA 18301 and can be reached at 570-426-2870. The office hours are 8:00 am – 6:00 pm on Monday – Thursday.

National Nurses Week is celebrated annually May 6-12 throughout the United States. The American Nurses Association (ANA) chose “Delivering Quality and Innovation in Patient Care” as the theme for this year. Pocono Medical Center (PMC) held its annual Nurses Week Celebration recently and thanked their nearly 500 nurses for delivering compassionate world-class care close to home.

Kathy Kuck, President and CEO, Paulette Nish, Vice President and Chief Nursing Officer, and Joseph Brookes, Administrative Director of Nursing present nursing awards.

At the National Nurses Week Celebration, four nurses were recognized with the following awards: Tammy Castles, Rapid Treatment Center, Clinical Excellence, Lee King, Patient Care Services, Advancing the Nursing Profession, Mark Thomas, Intensive Care Unit, Preceptor Excellence Award, Karen Lewis, Quality Management, Patient Advocacy Award

Paulette Nish, Vice President of Patient Care Services and Chief Nursing Officer at PMC recognized all nurses for their contributions, “It is an honor to work with a Patient Care team that is committed to our values of integrity, respect, and teamwork. I congratulate our award winners and recognize each member of our team for their dedication to these values and our community.”

What better way to celebrate the start of camping season than with a trip to Moyer’s Grove Campground & Country RV. A proud supporter of Make-A-Wish since 1991, Moyer’s Grove Campground has raised more than $204,000. In 2012 alone, they raised a record total of $28,685 to help make wishes come true for children with life-threatening medical conditions.

Moyer's Grove Campground makes another contribution to Make-A-Wish

Located in Wapwallopen, Moyer’s Grove Campground has an endless array of events for guests to partake in, including the always successful “Make-A-Wish Funtastic Weekend.” With beach volleyball, mini-golf, craft classes and hiking trails, Moyer’s Grove Campground has something for everyone.
