- Why did you choose to become a YES! LEADer?
  It feels great working with kids and making an impact on them

- Returning LEADers: What’s your most memorable YES! moment?
  Going to work with the kids and participating in activities with them.

- If you could tell elementary students one reason why it’s important to resist negative peer pressure, what would it be?
  You have a lot to look forward to and negative actions can impact that.

- What do you hope to take away from your experience with YES! LEADS?
  A great learning experience and way to teach kids.

- Who are some of your role models?
  My Dad, Mom, and George Washington.

- What do you like to do in your spare time?
  Play sports and play video games.
